

THE HAYTI HERALD.

VOL. I.

HAYTI, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, 1909.

NO. 42.

MODERN CONCERT CO.

The Modern Concert Company is playing in Hayti this week, and is under the auspices of the Hayti Civic League. They will be here all the week. They come well recommended. The Steele News has this to say of them:

"The Modern Concert Company, who have been playing in our city during the week, have one of the cleanest, up-to-date shows that has ever visited here. The entertainment consists of good singing and dancing, clever comedians and farce comedies. E. J. Black, the proprietor, is an old newspaper man, and as a member of the craft we wish to compliment him on having such a nice company of ladies and gentlemen and to thank them for favors shown this office. All who have attended the show are well pleased. They close their engagement in Steele Saturday night and open in Hayti Monday."

"The Modern Concert Company has been playing to large and appreciative audiences at their tent just this side of the ball park this week. The company is composed of ladies and gentlemen of high talent, and you can rest assured of being well entertained every time you go."

GUN-TOTING LAW.

The new Missouri law, making gun-toting a felony, becomes effective Aug. 16. The law provides a punishment of not more than two years in the penitentiary and a maximum fine of $100 for carrying concealed deadly weapons, or for carrying such weapons concealed or exposed to a public gathering, or when intoxicated, or for selling or loaning such weapons to any minor.

CIGARETTE LAW.

The cigarette law goes into effect August 16, and after that date it will be unlawful for dealers to sell cigarette papers or cigarettes to those under the age of 18, and should any one under this age be found smoking cigarettes on the streets they are subject to a fine. Better be careful, boys.

Tobe Baird returned from Kentucky last Thursday, leaving his wife there to recuperate her health. While there he visited his old home at Sheppardsville, and brought back from the old burying ground a piece of a petrified corpse that was unearthed while digging a grave about six weeks ago. The whole form was perfectly petrified, some of it resembling flint. The piece Mr. Baird has shows one button, a part of the bones, and what seems to be the small intestines.

A full line of Waltham, Elgin, Hamden, Springfield and South Bend watches. We handle no 2nds. Nothing but the best, that has passed inspection at the factory. Chas. Goodrich, Caruthersville. 30

FRANK BARRETT.

As a prosecutor in murder and criminal cases, Judge J. S. Gossom is fast coming to the front as the best in Southeast Missouri, and certainly the best in Pemiscot county.

Another one of his good convictions was in the Frank Barrett murder case last week, when Barrett was given 28 years in the penitentiary for killing a man at Deering a few months ago.

We are informed that a former prosecuting attorney offered to accept a plea of guilty and allow two years and a parole, but Barrett would not accept this, thinking he could clear himself.

In the hands of Prosecuting Attorney Gossom, however, a strong case was developed, and Barrett gotten off light with 28 years, and since the trial new evidence is developing that makes the case still stronger.

Barrett is well known in Hayti, having lived here several years. The murder at Deering was during a drunken brawl.

Notice For Proposals.

Sealed bids will be received by the board of directors of the Dry Bayou School District up to 3 o'clock Monday, Aug. 16, 1909, for the building and completing of a one story school house in said district, on the northeast corner of the Schilling farm, according to plans and specifications which may be seen by calling upon C. W. Wilson, Dry Bayou, P. S. Ravenstein, Hayti, or Judge S. H. McCarty, Caruthersville, Mo. Address all proposals in a sealed envelope to C. W. Wilson, Stanley, Mo., marked proposals to build school house, at Dry Bayou, Mo. The board of directors reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Chas. Goodrich, the Caruthersville jeweler, was in Hayti Sunday afternoon, and informed us that he would leave for a short trip to Florida next Saturday, to look after his property at Kissimmee and Jacksonville. He will stop at Memphis, Tenn., in hopes of getting some clue to the men who stole his diamonds during the drummers meet.

The most durable machine made is the NEW HOME. We also handle the ball bearing Singer, the WILL C. FREE, the New Ideal, the Eldredge, the Wilcox and Gibbs. With over 45 years handling and repairing machines, we are competent to tell you which is the best. Chas. Goodrich, Caruthersville.

The whole town of Grandin has been offered by its absolute owner, the Missouri Lumber and Mining Company, to the National Congregational Educational Society, for the purpose of establishing a great industrial academy.

We are closing out our Columbia, Victor and Zonophone 10 inch records at 45 cents each. We have 1,000 records in stock. Also a good discount on graphophones. Chas. Goodrich, Caruthersville.

The marshal will doubtless have to take a hand in entertaining some of the boys who are getting smart at the show. Parents who have boys who can't behave themselves in public should keep them at home.

Bridge timber and lumber of all kinds, 2 and 2½ in. oak flooring, sidewalk lumber, oak and cypress, dressed and rough palings, always on hand at reasonable prices. C. W. Frick.

Will Watson of Holcomb ran into the arms of the city officials at the depot last Friday, and after interviewing Police Judge Gwin, made the usual deposit for the benefit of our much depleted treasury.

Clothing cleaned and pressed and all work guaranteed. Leave orders at Gaskins' barber shop or my residence. J. M. Argo. 27tf

Mrs. Emily Taylor brought to our office Saturday some peaches that for color, shape and size are the equal of any we have seen this year. She has sold about 20 bushel, and still has more to sell.

J. L. Dorris has the finest line of laces and embroideries ever brought to Hayti. Ask to see them, whether you want to buy or not.

He Was From Dunklin County.

Dunklin County Democrat: They are telling this story, although it may be a lie, made out of the whole cloth:

A middle aged looking man from Dunklin county alighted from a train one day at Caruthersville recently and went to a saloon close to the depot. He went in and commenced pointing around at the shelves. The bartender finally placed his hand on a bottle of "Kentucky Dew" and the man nodded his head to the effect that the bartender had what he wanted. He took about four big gulps and drew a five dollar bill. The bartender wanted to be kind and wrote on a piece of paper, "we don't charge deaf and dumb people for what they drink here."

"H—I, I'm not deaf and dumb. I was just so dry that I couldn't speak," said the fellow.

Back to Pemiscot.

J. J. Farris, and family, who left with Tom Williams for Tahoka, Tex., two years ago, arrived back in old Pemiscot last week. Artie Kirkpatrick coming through on the emigrant car, and arriving Sunday, having been a week on the road. Mr. Kirkpatrick informs us that there will be no crops this year, as there has been no rains in seven months, and that Mr. Williams expects to join his sons in Southwest Oklahoma.

The Modern Concert Company is entertaining the people of Hayti this week, and is dividing the receipts with the Civic League. The company is made up of nice men and women, and their entertainments are clean.

When you see a cross mark on your paper, made with a pencil, it tells you that your subscription is out and we ask you to renew at once. Not hearing from you promptly, we will stop the paper.

Walter Jenkins, a timber man, drew all the money coming to him last Saturday, and left his creditors. Several attachments have been served, and much annoyance may result. It is said he was owing about $1,500, and left with about $1,200.

Grit Kote asphalt roofing, feltspar surface one side, sanded surface one side. One of the best roofings made. Call and see it and get prices. C. W. Frick. 30tf

Von Mayes, the Hayti lawyer, won several very important damage cases at Caruthersville this court, among them the T. E. Ham case against the Frisco for $5,000 and the G. E. Fields case for $1,500.

Now is a good time to have the Herald sent to your friends and relatives. They will enjoy it more than a letter, because it tells all the news.

On August 30 the Woodman of the World paid the A. H. Dunn insurance, $750.00, $375.00 going to the widow and $375.00 to the oldest child. This was a quick adjustment.

We have some extra good things in men's and boy's underwear for hot weather. Get something thin and keep cool. J. L. Dorris.

East Prairie Eagle: H. F. Wylie of Hayti, returned to his home Thursday, after a few days' visit with his sister, Mrs. W. Winslow whom he had not seen for twenty-six years.

Those Silver Negligee shirts at J. L. Dorris are beauties. The man who wears silver shirts, has no shirt troubles.

F. M. Johnson of Terry paid this office a pleasant call Tuesday, and informed us that the Webb boys, brothers of his wife, are getting along nicely in California.

Good fresh, clean meats, good weights and courteous treatment is the motto at Chas. Morgan's butcher shop. 37tf

DO NOT GET

EXCITED

What's the use? The man who runs over himself, gets stampeded, tears his clothes and pulls his hair every time the world doesn't wag his way, is making his own life a failure and the lives of others miserable.

Better get down to system—find the rough places and keep away from them. This is my motto in business. I know that kind and courteous treatment, honest goods and honest prices, coupled with fair dealings, will win out in the end, and will make my customers permanent.

It's a good thing to get acquainted. Don't limit yourself. The world is large, and people are different. I would like for you to come to my store and learn my ways and my prices—examine my stock carefully, and I am sure you will be pleased—not only pleased, but that we will be friends and you will be my customer, and save yourself much worry. I take care of my customers, because their interest and welfare is my own. See the point!
